Blacks, harder-hit by unemployment

Unemployment increased somewhat dramatically for Black Americans in March, particularly for Black men, according to the April 2010 Race-Recovery Index released by the Kirwan Institute for the Study of Race and Ethnicity at The Ohio State University. Black unemployment rose to 16.5% in March, up from 15.8% in February; and March unemployment for Black men stood at 19%, up from 17.8% in February.

Businesses owned by women and people of color continue to receive a smaller-than-proportionate share of federal stimulus contracts and stimulus contract dollars. More information is available in the following April 2010 Race-Recovery Index report:
