

Reaffirming the Role of School Integration in K-12 Education Policy

A Conversation Among Policymakers, Advocates and Educators

This conference brings together a wide range of government officials to converse with educators, civil rights advocates and scholars who support racially and economically integrated K-12 public schools. Participants will learn about racial and socioeconomic integration incentives in current and proposed federal policies, regulations and spending programs. Panelists and audience members also will discuss current integration efforts on the ground that sustain quality integrated schools and stable communities.

We will discuss:

- Current Legal Guidelines Governing School Integration
- The Federal Education Budget and Policies to Promote K-12 School Integration
- Using “Interdistrict” Strategies to Achieve Integrated Schools
- Programs Linking Housing Opportunity to Integrated Schools

Hosted by:
NAACP Legal Defense and Educational Fund, Inc.
The ACLU Racial Justice Program
Poverty & Race Research Action Council
Citizens’ Commission on Civil Rights
The Charles Hamilton Houston Institute for Race & Justice at Harvard Law School
The Center for Civil Rights at UNC School of Law
Kirwan Institute for the Study of Race & Ethnicity at the Ohio State University
The Civil Rights Project/Proyecto Derechos Civiles at UCLA
Howard University School of Law Education Rights Center
The Fair Housing Law Clinical Program at Howard University School of Law
Chief Justice Earl Warren Institute on Race, Ethnicity and Diversity at Berkeley Law School
Center for Understanding Race and Education at Teachers College, Columbia University
Education and the Public Interest Center at the University of Colorado at Boulder

Registration Opens October 1, 2009. $50 General/$25 Students

November 13th, 2009
Howard University School of Law
Washington, DC
For more information, visit www.charleshamiltonhouston.org/Events/Event.aspx?id=100099.