

Two Years After Katrina

Have we made progress in restoring the Gulf Coast? What are the successes and persistent obstacles? What areas will future research need to focus on in these areas?

Ohio State faculty from across campus will discuss their research and rebuilding efforts along the Gulf Coast on the anniversary of Hurricane Katrina. A panel discussion will take place Wednesday, August 29, 2007 from 10 a.m. to Noon in 190 Knowlton Hall. The event is co-sponsored by the Knowlton School of Architecture and the Kirwan Institute for the Study of Race and Ethnicity.
